

EVANGELISM FOR GOD'S SHY PEOPLE

Frank Logue

A PROLOGUE

“O God,
you are my God;
eagerly I seek you;
my soul thirsts for you,
my flesh faints for you,
as in a barren
and dry land where
there is no water.”

-Psalm 63:1

“Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life.”

“Father forgive them,
for they know not what they do.”

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.” -John 3:16-17

What is the Gospel to you?

Where have you experienced
the Good News
in your life?

1. See the need for sharing your faith.
2. Get in touch with what the Gospel is for you.
3. Listen differently.

“Do you have a church home.”

“Why would a together person like yourself not be in a church on Sunday morning?”

There are so many things that we worry about that I don't think God cares about one way or another.

But I worry there are things that keep God up at night that we just don't care about.

Share your faith with those to whom you are already connected.

When have you
truly felt heard?

When did
someone you know talk about their faith
in a way that touched you?
