When Two or Three Are Gathered: Spiritual Stories by Contemporary Episcopalians

From an eleven-year-old boy to a retired English teacher, from a former prison inmate to a future priest embarking upon prison ministry, this selection of stories offers a stunning series of vignettes that show how God touches and changes lives. This anthology not only offers a picture of contemporary experiences of faith lived in the Episcopal tradition but also encourages you to embark on your own writing journey with a set of workshops at the end of each chapter. Make this a Lenten discipline!

Read

Psalm 119: 97-120 - How sweet are your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth! Through your precepts I get understanding; therefore I hate every false way. Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.

Have you ever eaten sweet honey? Maybe on a sandwich? That sweetness is like God's care for us, in all of the ways that God loves us. The stories we hear about Jesus and his disciples, they are a model for our lives. They show us how we should walk the path of life. They are like lighting a candle in a very dark room. Suddenly, we can see.

Act

Take a taste of honey on a spoon. Remember how God's love for us is as sweet as honey. Share that sweetness with others in kind words and actions.

Pray

Almighty God, help your words always to be the lantern that lights my path.
