Broken

by Ryan Casey Waller

In the age of social media, where our lives are curated to show only our best and most beautiful selves, it is easy to believe we are the only ones who are broken. But we are not alone. We are all broken and in need of God's blessing. No one has it all together; no person is perfect.

In essays both humorous and achingly vulnerable, author Ryan Casey Waller urges us to join him in pouring out our brokenness, not just to God but to each other.

Waller takes us through the trials of following Jesus during seasons of doubt and disbelief, anger, shame, and even hate, but always brings us back to the amazing news that Jesus blessed the bread before he broke it. Through Jesus, our brokenness is blessed, our wounds healed, and our hearts made whole.

“Peppered with wit and wisdom, Broken is part devotional and part motivational. Waller weaves scripture lessons with his ordinary life experience(s) and rich perspective, revealing that others too can see God in their daily life.”

Joy in Confession Reclaiming Sacramental Reconciliation

Reconciliation is one of the most beautiful and life-changing gifts that Jesus offers us. Reconciliation—more commonly known as confession—is also one of the most misunderstood. Author Hillary D. Raining provides compelling evidence of transformation for individuals and communities who embrace reconciliation as a spiritual practice. Joy in Confession combines art therapy, scholarship, theology, and worship to create a powerful experience for learning about confession in the Episcopal Church. The Rite of Reconciliation holds a key to grace and an invitation from God to live with joy as a people of a resurrected hope—if we would but answer the call.

The Power of Imperfection How to Have Courage to Be Yourself

Many of us go through life feeling as if we are failing to be the person we could be. But as this liberating book explores, there is power to be found in imperfection. If we are able to own and work with our complexities and imperfections, we will find within them great resources and riches. Using stories from scripture and the news, personal experience, poems, and art, author Ruth Scott celebrates the messiness and creative potential of being human.

I Witness

Living Inside the Stories of Advent & Christmas

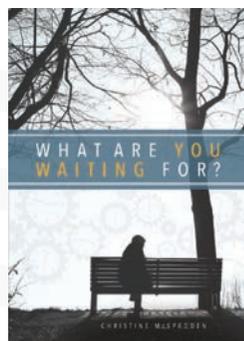

Episcopal priest Kate Moorehead invites us to enter the story of Jesus' birth with our hearts and minds wide open, experiencing the miracle of Jesus through the eyes of witnesses: Zechariah, Elizabeth, Mary, Joseph, the shepherds and the wise men. These daily devotionals offer a companion through the seasons of Advent and Christmas and urge us to keep reading, keep listening, keep learning. The story of Christ's birth can be both familiar and new in each re-telling. Come and see.

FREE Formation Course

Exploring the Bible

Part of the Living Discipleship Series

Many of us are intimidated by the Bible. It seems too distant, too difficult to understand, and too long. Exploring the Bible is a twenty-six session, all-ages curriculum that uncovers the vast, sweeping story of God’s extraordinary love for ordinary people, in a clear and easy-to-follow format.

About the course

Each session, participants read selections from the Bible, with passages excerpted and condensed by biblical scholars for easier reading. On this journey through the scriptures, from Genesis to Revelation, participants learn that the hope God offered to the faithful in ages past is the very same hope to which God is calling us today. Through thought-provoking questions in the curriculum and weekly group discussions, participants examine all the highlights of the biblical narrative—and learn how the pieces of the story fit together.

Curriculum format and facilitation

Each adaptable session is designed to be approximately an hour long, utilizing a largely discussion-based format. Instructions and facilitator notes guide the leader(s), while participants are asked to read each week to prepare for the discussion. Sessions correspond to the chapters in the course companion book The Path: A Journey Through the Bible (see page 8).

Who can participate?

The primary course is designed for adults and young adults, with an appendix on how to adapt sessions for youth. For communities with young children, a free secondary course, The Path: Family Storybook Facilitator’s Guide and companion book (see page 8) allows the entire family to take part.

Every member of the family can learn about the same story, each in their own class, and have a shared starting point from which to go home and talk, discuss, and debate about “what they learned in Sunday school.”

RenewalWorks

Assessing and guiding spiritual vitality in congregations

RenewalWorks is a catalyst for refocusing parishes (and the individuals in them) on spiritual vitality. It has been tailored to the Episcopal tradition, adapting 10 years of research that has uncovered key characteristics of flourishing congregations.

The process will inspire your congregation and leadership to rediscover who Jesus is and what it means to follow him. Through a guided methodology of self-reflection, sharing, and workshop discussion, RenewalWorks challenges parishes to refocus on spiritual growth and to identify ways that God is calling them to grow.

The Good Book Club

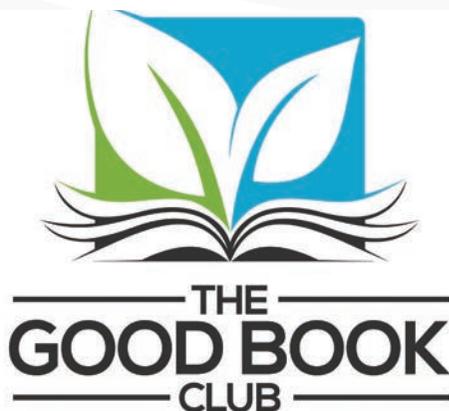

A churchwide reading of Luke and Acts | Lent–Easter 2018

You are invited on a great journey to explore the entire story of Jesus' life as told by Saint Luke and to read about the earliest Christians, their encounters with the Holy Spirit, and their passion for sharing the Good News of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Episcopalians around the world will read the Gospel according to Luke during Lent and the Book of Acts during Eastertide in 2018. Forward Movement invites you to join this adventure, and we welcome organizational partnerships to offer resources to sustain and enrich people in this journey. Many partners have already joined this initiative and will create videos, podcasts, blogs, and study guides for all ages.

The Good Book Club is free. You can download the reading list and read Luke and Acts for no charge. Several resources created for this project will be free, while others will have a cost. You'll pay only for the resources you wish to purchase.

Practicing Evangelism | #2454

We know we should share our faith, but the concept of evangelism can seem overwhelming or scary to some. Scott Gunn, executive director of Forward Movement, offers concrete ways we can share the Good News of Jesus Christ to our friends and neighbors. He even includes some sample conversation starters!

Evangelism for Everyone | #2453

Sharing our faith—being evangelists—is simply sharing the story of the unending, incredible love of God. It should be easy, but many folks approach the idea of evangelism with trepidation. Frank Logue, canon to the ordinary in the Diocese of Georgia, explores what it means to be bearers of Christ's Good News and why we are all called to be evangelists, using our particular gifts and talents.

The Jesus Movement | #2414

Presiding Bishop Michael B. Curry invites us to respond to God's call to be "the Episcopal branch of the Jesus Movement in this world." At his installation as the 27th Presiding Bishop of The Episcopal Church, the Most Rev. Michael B. Curry offered a rousing sermon on what it means to join the Jesus Movement—living as faithful followers and sharing the Good News with the world. Embrace Bishop Curry's challenge for The Episcopal Church and his vision for our future in this pamphlet—and share it with your entire congregation! Also available in Spanish (#2415).
