About Forward Movement

Inspiring disciples and empowering evangelists around the globe every day, Forward Movement has been producing excellent, innovative resources to encourage spiritual growth in individuals and congregations for more than eighty years.

Best known for Forward Day by Day, a daily devotional providing meditations on scripture readings, we continue to build on our history of encouraging discipleship and evangelism. Today we offer books and eBooks for small groups, individual study, and prayer, Christian formation courses, leadership events, Spanish and bilingual resources, pamphlets, downloadable resources, a daily podcast, apps for smartphones or tablets, and online engagement opportunities.

Forward Movement donates more than 100,000 resources for Bible study, daily reflection, and spiritual nourishment each year to prisoners, hospital patients, and nursing home residents in fifty countries around the globe.

Our ministry is made possible through generous donations, grants, and product sales.

A Journey with Luke
The 50 Day Bible Challenge
A masterful storyteller with the compassion of a physician, Luke paints a picture of Jesus as healer, full of mercy, forgiveness, and love. Luke features the Magnificat, Mary’s love song to God; the nativity story heard in Christmas pageants around the world; and three parables not heard in any other gospel: the prodigal son, the good Samaritan, and the unjust judge. Features fifty days of scripture, meditations, and prayers.

A Journey Through Acts
The 50 Day Bible Challenge
The Book of Acts shares the story of the birth of the Christian church, connecting the earliest followers of Jesus to Christians 2,000 years later. On the Day of Pentecost, the Holy Spirit breathes new life into followers of “The Way,” the community of Jesus’ disciples, and empowers them to share the Good News of God in Christ. Foreword by Presiding Bishop Michael B. Curry. Features fifty days of scripture, meditations, and prayers.

Daily Devotions for Lent

Are We There Yet?
Pilgrimage in the Season of Lent
Whether we’re taking the trip of a lifetime or the trip simply feels like it’s taking forever, the question on everyone’s lips is: “Are We There Yet?” As we make our way through Lent, faithful writers serve as our companions, offering inspired reflections about their journeys, both to beloved pilgrimage sites in the Christian tradition as well as internal pilgrimages through the difficult terrain of the soul.

Ashes and the Phoenix
Meditations for the Season of Lent
Faithful and challenging reflections are crafted by esteemed writers, threaded throughout with the stunningly visual and visceral poems of Len Freeman, and guided by the collects for Lent and Holy Week. Ashes and the Phoenix seeks to lead us through the emotions, symbols, sights, sounds, and scents of Lent. This book is a feast for hungry hearts and weary eyes.

Meeting Jesus on the Margins
Meditations on Matthew 25
In the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus urges us to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, welcome the stranger, and visit the prisoners. In doing so, we meet Jesus. These reflections, by well-known faith leaders, provide boots-on-the-ground stories of serving and being served by “the least of these.” These daily meditations explore our own hunger, vulnerabilities, and the times we are imprisoned, either self-imposed or by circumstance.

Lent Is Not Rocket Science
An Exploration of God, Creation, and the Cosmos
The season of Lent prompts us to ask questions, big and small, about the nature of our being, and about our role in the world. In these daily Lenten reflections, astronomer, physicist, and Episcopal Bishop W. Nicholas Knisely explores the intersection of faith and science, creation and the cosmos.

The Soul’s Journey
An Artist’s Approach to the Stations of the Cross

Walk the historic tradition of the Stations of the Cross in new ways that will open your soul to grace. This beautiful coffee table book features the paintings of artist Kathrin Burleson as well as soul-searching reflections on her creative process and spiritual journey. Each station also offers devotions from key leaders in the Episcopal Church, including former Presiding Bishop Katharine Jefferts Schori and the Rev. Alberto R. Cutié. In images, stories, and prayers, these stations reflect the Passion of Christ, exploring betrayal, judgment, and suffering but ultimately celebrating the great triumph of life over death, the Resurrection of Christ Jesus.

Dust Bunnies in the Basket
Finding God in Lent & Easter

Episcopal priest Tim Schenck offers good humor and spiritual direction for the journey through Lent and Easter. With keen observations and a clever wit, Schenck connects the mundane with the divine, from dust bunnies and egg hunts to foot washing and the Easter Vigil. Illustrated by popular cartoonist Jay Sidebotham, Dust Bunnies in the Basket challenges us to go deeper this Lent, to “kick up some dust every now and then, to roll up our sleeves and get involved with the world and the people around us.”

Springtime of the Spirit
Homilies for the Weekdays of Lent and Holy Week

A faith-filled journey through the weekday Eucharistic readings for the season of Lent. Using the appointed daily readings and collects, John D. Alexander has crafted homilies suitable for use by clergy during daily Eucharistic celebrations, for personal use by lay people seeking a deeper Lenten experience, or for group reflection.

Joy in Confession
Reclaiming Sacramental Reconciliation
Reconciliation is one of the most beautiful and life-changing gifts that Jesus offers us. Reconciliation—more commonly known as confession—is also one of the most misunderstood. Author Hillary D. Raining provides compelling evidence of transformation for individuals and communities who embrace reconciliation as a spiritual practice. Joy in Confession combines art therapy, scholarship, theology, and worship to create a powerful experience for learning about confession in the Episcopal Church. The Rite of Reconciliation holds a key to grace and an invitation from God to live with joy as a people of a resurrected hope—if we would but answer the call.

The Power of Imperfection
How to Have the Courage to Be Yourself
Many of us go through life feeling as if we are failing to be the person we could be. But as this liberating book explores, there is power to be found in imperfection. If we are able to own and work with our complexities and imperfections, we will find within them great resources and riches. Using stories from scripture and the news, personal experience, poems, and art, author Ruth Scott celebrates the messiness and creative potential of being human.

Broken
Before Jesus broke the bread, he blessed it.
In the age of social media, where our lives are curated to show only our best and most beautiful selves, it is easy to believe we are the only ones who are broken. But we are not alone. We are all broken and in need of God’s blessing. No one has it all together; no person is perfect. In essays both humorous and achingly vulnerable, author Ryan Casey Waller urges us to join him in pouring out our brokenness, not just to God but to each other. Waller takes us through the trials of following Jesus during seasons of doubt and disbelief, anger, shame, and even hate, but always brings us back to the amazing news that Jesus blessed the bread before he broke it. Through Jesus, our brokenness is blessed, our wounds healed, and our hearts made whole.
